

DAVE NAVE

CONSULTANT PROFILE

Dave guide leaders toward effective management. Before embarking on this journey, he spent 40 years in manufacturing (automotive, aerospace, defense, and others), learning to balance improvement projects' technical, humanistic, and management perspectives.

As a Management Engineer, he helps you to better balance your organization's Strategy, Culture, Structure, Processes, and Values. Providing support for improving the quality of the company, task-force coaching, factory startup, plant turnaround, value management, and activities to stimulate stalled projects.

Dave delivers operational stability and a far-sighted management strategy to strengthen business resilience in today's ever-changing and complicated business environment.

He is a natural coach, mentor, and teacher with an acute instinct for communicating complex ideas and theories in plain, easily understood English.

“ Dave... Just wanted to say thank you, it's always a pleasure to work with you. I am looking forward to meeting with you next. You've already taught me some of the best lessons!

- Keep everything in the open (you never know what you'll find)
- Keep everything simple (you want everyone to understand) ”

... Jacob Brown, COO, Air Spares

Integrating Five Elements Together For Success

“ When I worked at a state agency as assistant director of staff development, we were running three shifts and our turnover rate was about 500%.

I would have liked to have known about you, because you could have helped me avoid a lot of mistakes. ”

... Jan Triplett, Ph.D., CEO, Business Success Center

“ ...I recruited Dave because he had an engineering background and understands both business and process improvement efforts.

Dave helped us reduce conflict and connect with both groups. He also created an internal website for us that received praise from international groups. ”

... Marlo Stebner, Value Engineering Lead - Boeing

“ If I had 10 people like him working for me, I would run the Company. ”

... Executive, General Dynamic/Convair
